NOTES: The following text was inadvertently left out of the Secretary-Treasurer report in the most recent Newsletter. It will run in the next Newsletter:

"...I would like to include a few general remarks about SSCP's financial status before giving our current financial snapshot. From the perspective of tracking our budget and resources the past three years, it is clear that SSCP is quite healthy financially. Our cash reserve has ranged from $23,600 up to $36,200 over the past three years. We tend to be quite flush with cash at the end of the year, when dues payments have been coming in and we have very few expenses. Then our funds decline through the spring and summer as we pay out for the many awards the Society confers, including the Distinguished Scientist Award, Dissertation Awards, conference Poster Awards, training awards, and the Mentor Award. Owing to the effectiveness of our outstanding Membership Committee (Doug Mennin, Chair, Elizabeth Hayden, and Ashley (Pietrefesa) Hart), as well as loyal members (that's you!), and enthusiastic new members (that may be you, as well!), dues income increased from $12,245 to $13,985 from 2010 to 2011. We also nearly doubled the amount of awards we confer over that time, from $5,500 to $10,500. Dues collected in 2012 are still coming in, but we have also continued the trend into 2012 of increasing the number of awards we give, so much so that the low ebb in funds typically observed at the end of summer and through the renewal season is lower than it has been in the past two years, by about $3,500. In short, for 2012 I expect that our awards largess will finally overtake our member recruitment and retention effectiveness, though to a degree that is sustainable for 7-8 years, assuming no changes in income or expenses. So, again, the Society continues to be in good financial condition, and I want to thank you for your continued loyalty and extremely helpful recruitment efforts. Each renewal and new member helps support and expand SSCP's efforts to encourage a science of clinical psychology."

b. Membership Issues – Dave Smith

NON-STUDENT MEMBERS: 243

DIVISION 12 MEMBERS: 178

APA MEMBERS: 345

Notes:

1. The fall renewal drive (the postcards sent by Div12) netted only ~130 renewals. That's less than half last year's yield. There were some issues with the postcards, and some people reported trouble with the credit card server. The Membership Committee is planning some changes for next year and a revised fall recruitment strategy this year to make up for the ineffective post card effort.

2. A virtual postcard email, indicating mainly "please renew -- here's the link" will go out today. Next week we will send a detailed "why renew" email. The "why renew" email will go out again in December. Only non-renewers will be targeted by these messages. The Board is welcome to review these letters if it wants.

3. A DCT letter will go out with the "why renew" emails next week. It includes information about the student group discount of $7.50 for 5+ students.

4. We are reaching back to 2011 members who did not renew in 2012 in addition to the 2012 members who did not renew for 2013. Ordinarily, we would not go back two years, but the low initial rate of renewal has us concerned and looking for new pools of potential members.

- c. External Nominations Committee – (Bunmi Olatunji absent; report delivered by Rick Heimberg)

The external nomination committee has nothing new to report. We are still working on securing letters of support for two nominees for the APA Gold Medal Award for Lifetime Achievement in Psychology. If members of the board are aware of other awards that the our committee might pursue nominations for, please do have them contact me.

- d. D12 Representative Report – (Doug Mennin absent; report delivered by Rick Heimberg)

No new information to add since the September 17, 2012 call

- e. Newsletter Report – Lea Dougherty absent; report delivered by Rick Heimberg)

Newsletter was published last week

The next newsletter will be published in February, and will focus on the internship crisis

Rick Heimberg may write a column (as a reflection of his year as president) and Michelle Craske will write a column (as the incoming president)

- f. Students' Website/Listserv/Internship/Other – Sara Stasik/Kristy Benoit

- Membership

- In conjunction with the upcoming membership drive, we have asked students to step forward as a "campus rep" for their department, to advertise membership to their peers, describe the benefits they have personally experienced, and encouraged others to join. So far we've had 10 students respond.

- Listserv facilitator position
 - In conjunction with Evan's input, we have decided on a one-year term, which will end his term as listserv facilitator at the end of this year.
 - We plan to personally approach individual students who have contacted us about getting more involved in SSCP to see if they might be interested in taking over the position. If that is unsuccessful, we will advertise on the listserv.

 - iii. the Ad hoc committee on the APA resolution will discuss these issues at their meeting on Friday 16th at ABCT
- b. Applications for SSCP Dissertation Award
 - i. Peter Norton, Committee Chair, reported 14 applicants to date (deadline for submission is November 16th) – last year we had 40 applications.

- c. Rick reminded Michelle to begin scheduling for 2013 Board Calls relatively soon.
